

VAPA (Theatre) Week 9
Specialists: Raquel Rios & Julie Budwine

GRADE	Lesson/Objective	Standard	Vocabulary	Activity
K	I will demonstrate real and imaginary characters.	1.2 Identify differences between real people and imaginary characters..	Character: The personality or part an actor recreates. Imaginary: Make-believe, not real	Goldilocks and the Three Bears: Students will act out behaviors of real bears and imaginary bears from the story.
1	I will observe and describe the traits of a character.	1.2 Observe and describe the traits of a character.	Character: The personality or part an actor recreates. Character Trait: The kind of person a character is.	Annie: Students will describe characters from Annie and identify their character traits.
2	I will identify storytelling from a different cultures.	3.1 Identify theatre and storytelling forms from different cultures.	Puppet: A doll moved by hands or strings or wires. Culture: The beliefs, custom and arts of a particular society. Marionette: A puppet with jointed limbs moved by strings.	Puppetry: Students will identify shadow puppets, marionettes and hand puppets.
3	I will collaborate with my peers in team-building improvisation games.	5.2 Develop problem-solving and communication skills by participating collaboratively in theatrical experiences.	Improvisation: :Created scenes or action without practicing or rehearsing.	Teamwork Students will play improvisation games that encourage teamwork.
4	I will perform tableaux to dramatize the California Gold Rush.	5.2 Use improvisation and dramatization to explore concepts in other content areas.	Tableau - A depiction of a scene by silent, motionless participants.	California Gold Rush: Student will work collaboratively to dramatize 3 tableaux about the California Gold Rush.
5	I will play improvisational games to explore complex ideas.	2.1 Participate in improvisational activities to explore complex ideas and universal themes in literature and life.	Improvisation: Created scenes or actions without practicing or rehearsing.	Let's Improvise! - Students will play various improvisation games.